By Paul Rardin

I met a friend of mine in Pahokee yesterday and I haven't quite figured it out but I think he was trying to be funny. He told me about a tall black haired lawyer in Pahokee who had disconnected the speedometer on his car to keep from putting any more mileage on his tires.

This same friend on his return from West Palm Beach noticed a certain cattle ranch under water. The ranch had been planted to para grass and it had drowned. He suggests now that the ranchman cross para grass with rice if he wants something to grow profitably on that site.

I picked up my Miami dailies Sunday morning and found exact pictures on the front page of each. What do you suppose they were? A snow storm in Nebraska.

I watched Robert Mackay and a crew of workmen loading what I thought was a truckload of weeds on Bartfield highway yesterday. The clerk in the store where Robert informed me that he was loading cattle beans to be transported to Brookville where they are used to make some kind of spray for the same pest. I found out, too, that some cattle beans were being loaded on a pretty penny and that Robert is being kept busy furnishing them to the dehydrating plant in Brookville.

Abe Dobrow, of the Prince theatre, states that there will be no interruption in the picture show during Sunday night's black out. The front of the show house will be darkened in accordance with the laws laid down by the defense council. The interior of the theatre will naturally be darkened any time the picture show will go on.

Following the Canal Point defense council meeting, the Red Cross they can contact Mrs. F. M. Wilson who has the necessary supplies.

No More Free Grab; Plenty Jobs Open

Re-applications will be taken on Wednesday afternoon in Pahokee and on Friday afternoon in Belle Glade. The Welfare Board stated the new ruling will remain in effect through the balance of the harvesting season.

You've Heard Of Hen's Teeth; They're Plentiful Compared To Auto Tires

Rev. Statham Heads Tire Rationing Board Pahokee-Canal Point Area

The Pahokee-Canal Point Defense Council today announced plans have been completed for the rationing of tires in this area. The Tire Rationing Board with tire dealers at the Pahokee Elks Club on Wednesday afternoon to outline the procedures to be followed. Despite the extremely heavy rain during the rationing of tires will make in their business, the dealers offered 100 per cent cooperation and privately expressed the opinion that the rationing of tires has been placed in unusually capable hands.

The Rev. J. E. Statham is chairman of the tire rationing and will serve with two other members, W. P. Walker, Pahokee City Clerk and George Mead, prominent Pahokee merchant. A tire inspection committee was named at Wednesday's meeting to inspect all tires of application. The committee consists of Frank Colson, J. S. Atkins and Clarence "Ikey" Maxwell.

The sale of new tires will be strictly limited to police and sanitation trucks and cars, physicians, ambulances, mail cars and trucks, and other vehicles necessary for the transportation of fuel and food. The new laws were generally interpreted to mean little interference in business vehicles and passenger autos will have to use what ever equipment they already have.

The officials further stated that qualified applicants should contact the Civil Service Secretary at any time or second-class post office for information as to the procedure to be followed in order to receive consideration for these positions.

It was found that a new tire, the first thing you go to for your tire dealer has obtained a special black then sharpen your pencils, gather your wits and prepare to answer a total of 30 questions contained on the application blank. After you finish answering questions you, sign a log, stating, averting your eyes, that you are not a member of the tire rationing board.

Mr. Wilson, who has the necessary supplies, will be taken on Wednesday afternoon in Pahokee and on Friday afternoon in Belle Glade. The Welfare Board stated the new ruling will remain in effect through the balance of the harvesting season.

Here's a final tip: Forget about the "black out" for someone else's car. There is a mighty heavy penalty in store for you if you get "caught" in the act.

It's Hard To Tell When Mart Will Open

Your guess is as good as anyone's as to when the new store Farmers' Market in Pahokee will be open for business. Priorities have held up installation of necessary equipment and the market managers M. A. Dulany reports the market may be open by February 1 but further postponements may be necessary.

In addition to priorities the WPA people have delayed completion of construction. It seems every so often work is stopped and a few weeks later is started again. WPA workers are now on the job finishing construction of the market platform and the work is that they will stay on the job this time until the work is completed.

So if you are anxious to know definitely when the new market will be open, the best bet is to tell you that officials are keeping their fingers crossed and hoping for the best.

THE LITTLE GUY

What distinguishes this country from the other great nations of the world? There are many possible answers to that question. And here's one of the best: "The United States is the country where the little guy is boss—where the little guy can go as far as his energies and abilities allow—where the little guy doesn't have to bow and scrape to anyone."

Little guys made this country. They came here from everywhere to establish freedom and escape tyranny. They landed in a wilderness. They were often cold and hungry. They seldom became rich. But they kept the faith. They built the homes and cleared the land and raised the children. They fought the wars of the past, just as they are fighting this war. The little guys were proud and strong and confident of the future, and the great land in which we live is their gift to us, the little guys of the present.

Little guys built the industries of this country. They saved a few dollars and put them into a store or a bank or a factory of some kind. They took chances. Much of the time they lost, but that didn't dismay them. They saved a few more dollars and took new chances. They didn't laugh when some visionary came with an idea the wisecracker said was obviously insane—the telephone, for instance, or the automobile, or a plan for lighting homes with electricity. There might be something in it, they thought, and they played the long shot. For the visionaries with the ideas were the same kind of people—little guys trying to get ahead, little guys trying to build and create. And some of them went from shacks to mansions in a year or two, and a year or two later were back in the shacks starting again. They always started again. It was in their blood, their bone, their character. The little guys didn't give up.

All of this country is a monument to the little guy. All of our industries, our farms, our homes, our resources—the little guys did the work. They went into the oil fields and brought out the black gold. They dug in the earth and gave us our coal and metals. A few became famous, but like millions remained unknown. They worked and died in obscurity, but this country is an everlasting monument to their deathless spirit which lives on.

That is the ideal we Americans must always keep in mind—America must be a place where the little guy is king. Free enterprise is the little guy's kind of enterprise—he can go into any business he wants, invest his savings in whatever he wants, and lick the competitors to a frazzle if he is able to. The government belongs to him—he doesn't belong to the government. The little guy made America, and today he is perpetuating America. And tomorrow he must be the symbol of America, too.—Plant City Enterprise.

Moberg To Preach Special Sermon

A sermon of vital interest and importance to the members and friends of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee, will be preached by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Moberg, on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

The choir, with Mrs. F. Eiler at the piano, will sing "Bring Ye". A mixed quartet will render a special selection.

At the evening hour of 7:30, the pastor will speak on the subject, "As Moses Lifted Up the Serpent in the Wilderness, Even So Must the Son of Man Be Lifted Up". A special musical program will be presented by the senior and junior choirs. The old fashioned musical sing will again be conducted.

The regular program meeting of the Brother-hood will be conducted in Tuesday night at the church under the leadership of Mr. W. Tullis, President.

AT THE THEATRES

"WEEK-END FOR THREE" WITH TOP-FLIGHT CAST JOYOUS NEW SCREEN HIT

How a visitor solves a marital problem forms the gay theme of "Week-End for Three." Hollywood's latest laughter feast, which presents Dennis O'Keefe, Jane Wyatt and Philip Reed at the head of its cast of funsters.

The first-named two play the roles of a young married couple, Jim and Ellen Craig, with Ellen feeling abused because Jim neglects her in favor of his advertising business. Hoping to rejuvenate his interest in her, Ellen invited an old admirer of hers, Randy Bloodworth, passing through town, to stay with them for a few days. Randy accepts eagerly, and his enthusiastic methods of enjoying life quickly make physical and nervous wrecks of his host and hostess. Their frantic efforts to get rid of him lead to the many hilarious situations of the picture.

OLYMPIA BRIDGES—Charming little French starlet who plays the leading feminine role opposite Ronald Reagan in "International Squadron." Playing Wed. Thurs. Jan. 14-15 at the Prince Theatre and Friday, January 16 at the Everglades Theatre.

Ultra romantic Cesar Romero has lots of time to allow his wares in the latest Technicolor musical, "Week-End in Havana." Showing Sun.-Mon., January 11-12 at the Prince Theatre and Tuesday, January 13 at the Everglades Theatre.

ROMERO'S COUSINS MAKE FILM DEBUT

Although Cesar Romero is the only member of his family whose #### name appears in the billing of Technicolor musical, "Week-End in Havana," which also stars Alice Payne, Carmen Miranda and John Payne, there are two more members of the Romero family in the cast of the picture.

Before work started on the film, a Technicolor crew went to Havana to film backgrounds for the picture. To provide a background cast, studio officials made arrangements with a committee to supply Cuban dolls for the film. The money they received was donated to "aid to Britain."

Two of those who responded to the appeal were Cesar's attractive debutante cousins. But they did not know he was to be in the picture until they wrote him and mentioned that they had appeared in an American film, "Week-End in Havana."

DEFENSE FIRST!

Make defense against heat and friction your first thought when you buy motor oil. Buy Sinclair Opaline. Opaline contains no "5th Columnists" wax and petroleum jelly—non-lubricating substances that thin out in heat and eat down on oil's lubricating ability. Wax and petroleum jelly are removed from Opaline by an extra refining process. Play safe. Use Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil. It lasts so long it saves you money.

Do You Remember When These Happenings Took Place

15 YEARS AGO

Here On The Shores of Lake Okechobee?

A sale of 100 hampers of beans at $4 per hamper was reported. The unusually high price was caused by freezing weather which ruined most bean vines in this Section.

Howard Sharp, newly elected County Commissioner for the Fifth District and editor of The Everglades News made his first trip throughout the district in an endeavor to learn the desires of his constituents.

Robert Wilson of West Palm Beach was accidentally shot and killed while duck hunting on a boat on Lake Okechobee.

W. J. Connors escorted members of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives who came from Washington to make a tour of Florida. Originally the Congressmen were to disembark at Chosen but a change in plans made it necessary for them to leave the boat at Canal Point. The feelings of the Congressmen were ruffled when they found out Canal Point had no telephone service, and they were unable to advise friends of the change in plans.

Dredging work on dikes around the Lake were ordered stopped on January 15 because of a lack of District funds.

Farmers in the Glades succeeded in getting the contractors to re-new work on the cross state highway from Belle Glade to the Hendry County line.

Prominent citizens of Canal Point were considering the organization of a Chamber of Commerce to push the proposal to make the Congress Highway a free highway instead of a toll road.

If weather permits, the Pahokee Woman's Club building will be raised Saturday. All men who volunteered are requested to come and help put the building back on blocks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kilpatrick, Jr. and family moved to the Husky place north of Pahokee last week.

The wife of Fire Chief Davidson of Okechobee was alone in the engine house when an alarm sounded. Mrs. Davidson promptly started the fire truck and with siren wailing drove to a burning cottage. Because of Mrs. Davidson's vigorous sounding of the siren, firemen were on hand at the cottage to attach the hoses.

The trustees of the State Internal Improvement fund announced that $1,922,961 worth of state bonds had been sold during 1935 and 1936.

Because of the cold weather Methodist services were conducted by the Rev. Fred Tiffin at the
